About Kevin

Kevin's interest in photography and design started at the age of 12 with the gift of a used 35mm camera and has never stopped. He spent his more formative years learning as he went and when he decided to enter the US air force he found the perfect opportunity to broaden his curiosity with a formal education. Kevin attended college while in the Air Force and received a Bachelor of Fine Arts and Print design with an additional degree in Applied science and logistics.

While in the Air Force Kevin began working as a free-lance photographer and was contracted by Grand Forks Air Force Base as a special events and sports photographer. Events photographed included the Air Force Ball 1997-1999, the Black and White Ball 1998-1999, the annual Chiefs' Dinner 1998-1999

Upon Kevin's discharge from the Air Force, he returned home and continued to work as a freelance photographer, becoming the Chief photographer for Media General at the Waynesboro News Virginian. Kevin left Media General to work to pursue his dream in establishing his own Commercial photography and Design business. Kevin finally realized his dream and with the help of his family he founded Kevin Blackburn Photography Full time and has become one of the areas top and most sought after photographers.
